2. Wall Home Update – Councilwoman Cindy Johnson gave a brief update on the committee’s meeting on January 20, 2020 with Stimmel and Marty Marion. Mayor Pro Tempore Hedgecock stated that once the home is completed, he would like to hire to part-time people for a museum curator for the inside and maybe a master gardener for the outside. The curator would be able to share the story of Davidson County and versed in NC state history. A Master Gardner for upkeep and education purposes, and possible gardening club. The personnel committee will begin to look for possible part-time folks along with a job description for those positions. There was a consensus from the town council to begin to form an advisory committee only for “friends of the Wall home group”.
3. Town Hall Park Construction – Mayor Pro Tempore updated that the park is complete with minor clean up after weather clears.
4. MPO – High Point - Councilman Lynn Reece – Met on January 28, 2020 at the High Point Museum. There was nothing directly regarding the Town of Wallburg.
5. MPO – Winston Salem – Mayor Allen Todd – Mayor Todd read over the action items on the latest agenda. There was nothing discussed in regards to the Town of Wallburg.
